Investigating, Prosecuting, Defending, and Assessing Child Exploitation and Human Trafficking Cases
JANUARY 18, 2012

On January 18, 2012, the Northwestern Journal of International Human Rights hosted Judge Virginia M. Kendall and Mr. T. Markus Funk in a presentation and discussion of their new book Child Exploitation and Trafficking: Examining the Global Challenges and U.S. Responses. Child Exploitation and Trafficking brings fresh thinking to a complicated area of the law. Each year, more than two million children around the world fall victim to commercial sexual exploitation. The numbers of children sexually abused for non-commercial purposes are even higher. Put simply, the growing, increasingly-organized epidemic of child exploitation demands an internationally coordinated response.
