In Memory of
James Bronson Reynolds

President of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology

Resolution

Adopted by the Institute at the Annual Meeting in Detroit on January eleventh, nineteen hundred and twenty-four.

WHEREAS, Mr. James Bronson Reynolds, for three years President of this Institute, passed away on the first day of the present year; and

WHEREAS, He brought to this Organization an entire devotion and a free sacrifice of his whole time and energy, and thereby accelerated the development of the program and activities of the Institute and brought a promise of results of great value to the Organization and to Criminal Law and Criminology everywhere; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology place on record this expression of its keen sense of loss in the death of its President; and cause it to be published in the Journal of the Institute and distributed amongst its members.
