Dean Leon Green

Because of circumstances which necessitated the establishment of his family residence elsewhere than in the Chicago area, Dean Leon Green resigned from the Faculty of Northwestern University School of Law on September 1, 1947. He is now on the Law Faculty of the University of Texas, as Distinguished Professor of Law.

During his tenure as Dean at Northwestern, from 1929 to 1947, Mr. Green gave wholehearted support to the Journal of Criminal Law and Criminology and to the American Journal of Police Science. Without his very active interest, particularly with respect to arrangements at various times for financial support, the present publication might not have maintained its position as the foremost publication of its kind both here and abroad.

Grateful for his previous efforts, and noting with much satisfaction that Mr. Green will continue to serve as one of our associate editors, we extend to him our compliments and good wishes.
