This Criminology is brought to you for free and open access by Northwestern University School of Law Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Journal of Criminal Law and Criminology by an authorized editor of Northwestern University School of Law Scholarly Commons.

It is this second section that is of greatest interest to the document examiner. Direct application of the data and discussions contained in it are not likely, but this information must be the basis from which any new identification methods of printed matter are to be derived. For the research minded document examiner here is a technical source book of value.
