ERRATUM

In Volume 95, Issue 2 on page 427, the first sentence of Professor Fagan and Ms. West's article entitled, The Decline of the Juvenile Death Penalty: Scientific Evidence of Evolving Norms, should read as follows:

Shortly after the U.S. Supreme Court issued its decision in *Atkins v. Virginia*¹ holding that the execution of mentally retarded persons violated the Eighth Amendment, legal scholars, advocates, and journalists began to speculate that the Court would next turn its attention to the question of the execution of persons who were juveniles—below eighteen years of age—at the time they committed homicide.

The Journal regrets its error.
