ONE HUNDRED AND ONE PROSECUTING ATTORNEYS FROM THIRTY-ONE STATES ATTEND SHORT COURSE FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEYS AT NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

Northwestern University School of Law has resumed its pre-war program of annual short courses for prosecuting attorneys. During the five day period from August 1st through August 5th, 1949, one hundred and one prosecutors from thirty-one states attended the fourth one of this series of short courses. Twenty-one of the attendants came from Illinois; nine from Ohio; six from Nebraska and New York; five from Kansas; four from Louisiana, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, Texas and Wisconsin; three from Massachusetts, Michigan, and Oregon; two from Arkansas, California, Iowa, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Virginia, and West Virginia; and one from Alabama, Colorado, Idaho, Indiana, Kentucky, Minnesota, Nevada, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Utah and Wyoming.

The object of the course was to familiarize prosecuting attorneys with the possibilities of the application of scientific methods to criminal investigations and prosecutions and to establish a national forum for the mutual exchange of information among the attendants concerning the general problems of their office.

TUITION AND ATTENDANCE ELIGIBILITY

The registration-tuition fee for the course was $50.00. In most instances this fee and all other expenses of the attendants were defrayed by the counties they represented.

The course was restricted to attorneys holding federal or state office as prosecutor or assistant prosecutor.

A similar course is tentatively set for next summer during a five day period within the first or second week of August, 1950.
